

News Release

'Pulse of the Port' features on-dock rail, megaships and more Video series' latest episode available online

May 10, 2012

The latest "Pulse of the Port" video episode is available online, featuring coverage on upcoming Port construction projects, megaships, the Clean Trucks Program, and an outlook on the trade industry.

Ever wonder how cargo gets transported from the Port to a store near you? Take a look at the Port's extensive on-dock rail system and learn how rail at the Port is one of the most efficient methods to transport goods across the country. To find out more, click here.

Capture the largest ship ever to call on a North American port, the MSC Fabiola, in action as it carries up to 12,500 container units and docks at Pier T. Also, click here for an update on the Port's $1.2 billion Middle Harbor Redevelopment Project.

Take a look at the Port's Clean Trucks Program and find out how in just over three years the program was able to reduce air pollution by 90 percent. Click here to learn more.

See what shipping industry experts are saying about the 2012 outlook on trade. Click here to learn more.

For the whole Pulse of the Port lineup, click here or watch the program in its entirety on Long Beach Television Channel 3 Mondays at 7:30 p.m. and 11 p.m., Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m., Fridays at 7 p.m., Saturdays at 7:30 p.m., and Sundays at noon. Verizon subscribers can catch the program on Channel 21.

Share this:

To unsubscribe, click here

Port of Long Beach - www.polb.com
925 Harbor Plaza, Long Beach, CA 90802

To view our Privacy Policy click here.

Port of Long Beach
925 Harbor Plaza
Long Beach, CA 90802